CAUGHT BY LABOR!

The Lawyer Succeeded in Proving by a Captain That a Previous Judge Was a Liar.

FORMER COURT DOCUMENTS

The Audience Show Their Interest by Frequent Exclamations As a Disconcerted Witness Squirms Under the Questions of the Attorney.

Rennes, August 26.—At the trial of Captain Alfred Dreyfus to-day Alphonse Bertillon, chief anthropometrist of the department of the Paris prefecture of police, resumed the testimony interrupted yesterday by the adjournment of court. Bertillon testified as a handwriting expert, giving reasons for believing that Dreyfus was the author of the famous bordereau, on which the prosecution mainly depends to establish the charge against the prisoner.
The judges paid close attention to his demonstrations. On conclusion, the witness declared: "I am convinced the writer of the bordereau is the prisoner sitting there." Dreyfus heard him without flinching, with an expression of disdain.

M. Labori asked to have Captain Freystaeter, a member of the court-martial in 1894 which convicted Dreyfus, called in contradiction of the deposition of Colonel Maurel, presiding judge, who testified that he only read one of the documents out of the secret dossier communicated to the court-martial.

The captain said his conviction of the guilt of the prisoner was formed by the evidence of experts in handwriting and the deposition of Colonel Du Paty de Clam, "and," he continued, "I must add, some slight influence was exercised over my mind by hearing the secret dossier read."

He said that all the documents were read. This was in direct contradiction of Colonel Maurel. Labori demanded confrontation of Captain Freystaeter with Colonel Maurel. The latter mounted the stage.

"How do you explain this?" asked Labori.

The colonel replied savagely: "I said I only read one document. I did not say only one document was read."

This statement called forth hisses and indignant "Ohs" from the audience.
The witness was trembling with shame, but, evidently determined to fight to the last, threw a fierce look of hatred to Labori and the audience as the gen-darmes shouted: "Silence! silence!" After this the audience listened spellbound as Captain Freystaeter in a bold voice told exactly what documents of the dossier were read, and how Colonel Maurel not only read those documents, but made comments on them. This practically called Colonel Maurel a thorough liar. He glared at the captain ferociously. Freystaeter, however, was not dismayed, and his words were spoken in a tone of fearlessness that carried conviction.

"The secret dossier," said Freystaeter, "contained, first, a biographical dossier, imputing to Dreyfus acts of treason committed at the pyrotechnic school at Bourges, at the military college, and while on the headquarters staff; second, a document known as 'cette canaille de document'; third, a letter which, by showing the resemblance of the handwriting, proved the guineanness of the 'cette canaille de document'; and which was called the 'D'Avignon letter (Cries of 'Oh!'); fourth, a telegram from a foreign military attaché very distinctly asseverat-ing the prisoner's guilt." (Great sensation and lively interruptions followed this statement.)

"This telegram, if I remember rightly," continued the witness, "was in the following terms: 'Dreyfus is arrested.
Emissary warned.' (Renewed cries of 'Oh, oh!')

M. Paré Jofail, a draughtsman, was called for the defense. He was accompanied by a blackboard, upon which he proposed to refute a portion of M. Ber-tillon's problems. The witness said amid laughter that the demonstration would occupy not less than two hours.
He then proceeded to chalk a number of calligraphic signs on the blackboard and presented to the court photographs of the writing of the bordereau and the prisoner's handwriting, pointing out their dissimilarity and entering into elaborate explanations, which were not concluded when, at 11:50 a. m., the court adjourned.

cisco September 20. The 34th will leave

The Foresters.

Detroit, Mich., August 26.—The supreme court of Foresters of America decided to-day to hold its next meeting in Baltimore in 1901. The matter of selecting permanent headquarters was turned over to an advisory board for final action. It is believed Pittsburg will be selected because of its central location.

resigned that position, which he has long occupied with the Santa Fe Railway Company.

A $50,000 Race.

WARDNER PRISONERS ESCAPED.

It Is Believed That Missing Guards Were Bribed.

Wallace, Idaho, August 26.—Last night George Craddock, Joseph Innah, Jerry Cronin, Alexander Wills and Patrick Addude, under indictment for the murder of Chayne and Smith in the Wardner riots in April last, escaped from the stockade at Wardner. The soldier guards are also missing. The country is thoroughly aroused, and every possible effort will be made to recapture them. The manner of escape is unknown, but bribery is suspected.

troops are kept ready for an emergency.

gust 9, making a record trip for a man-of-war between Yokohama and Honolulu.

Naval Court of Inquiry.

Washington, August 26.—Acting Secretary Allen has appointed a court of inquiry to investigate the cruise of the Newark around Cape Horn. The president of the court is Captain G. S. Cotton, captain of the Mare Island navy yard. The appointment of the court is the result of unsatisfactory explanations which have reached the department concerning the Newark's cruise, there having been a difference between Captain C. F. Goodrich and Chief Engineer Moritz in regard to coaling.

Bus Team Ran Away.

The horses attached to Lowitzki's 'bus ran away last night at 2 o'clock while waiting for the passenger train from the west at the Santa Fe railroad depot. The bolt holding the body of the 'bus on the axles of the front wheels fell out, and the horses dashed up San Francisco street with the front wheels dangling behind them. The firemen returning home from the Martinez fire stopped the runaway and assisted in fixing the vehicle so that it could be used to bring passengers uptown from the depot. When the runaway occurred there was no one in or on the coach.

TWO OFFICERS WERE SHOT

Many Prisoners Are In Jail, But Several Hundred Persons Propose to Give Battle to the State Militia—Olimax Expected Today.

Darien, Ga., August 26.—After a night of quiet the city was thrown into excitement at noon to-day by the arrival of a courier with news that the negroes, who were believed last night to be in Delage swamp, had evacuated it, and are now at Delage's cabin, six miles from the swamp, and fully armed. This information was communicated to Col.
Lawton here. He at once wired Savannah to send the 1st regiment to Darien immediately. The situation is very grave. Colonel Lawton believed the negroes would come in and surrender, but he now thinks they will fight. The whites of the entire country are aroused and have been arriving in Darien, all armed and ready to fight, all morning.
The negroes outnumber the whites five to one.

The Savannah and Darien soldiers have been constantly on duty two days and two nights. They are greatly fatigated, and in no condition to fight.
William Townsend, the brother of the man who was murdered Thursday night, is here, and has placed himself at the head of the civilians to co-operate with Colonel Lawton and the military force.

The authorities particularly want two sons of Delage, who resisted arrest, and are surrounded by about 150 of their race. Special trains did not leave for the swamps this morning as scheduled, because it was learned that the negroes were on the move and hunting safe quarters. One train, however, was dispatched to Sapelo bridge, where a crowd of negroes had assembled, and were threatening to burn the town and railroad bridge.

The court house has been utilized as barracks, and Captain Grayson, of Savannah, is in command. The Liberty troop of cavalry is coming from Hines-ville by wagon, but will not reach here before 5 o'clock.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon a report reached here from Liberty county that negroes there, heading the departure of the militia for Darien, had gathered, and will march into Darien to-night.

There is no doubt the Delages have determined to resist arrest, and are getting assistance from McIntosh and Liberty county.

Colonel Lawton and Captain Grayson, however, are serene and confident, and expect the arrival of the militia to cause a scattering of negroes, making the arrests of the Delage boys an easy thing.

The whole trouble here began four days ago, when Henry Delage, an elderly negro man, charged with assault, was arrested. He was taken to Savannah the day following for safe keeping.
Two sons began to talk in an incendiary manner of their father's imprisonment, and aroused other negroes in the vicinity. All the alarmists among the negroes were arrested. The jail was not large enough to hold them, and twenty-five of them were sent to Savannah yesterday. Sheriff Blount called for military aid. Deputies Townsend and Hopkins went to the house of the Delagels Thursday night to arrest the sons for inciting riot, when Townsend was killed and Hopkins wounded by John Delage. Since that time the negroes have determined to stand by the Delagels in a fight against the officers, and have congregated in large numbers.

Atlanta, Ga., August 26.—Governor Candler received advices at 2 o'clock this afternoon that 1,000 negroes are believed to be under arms in McIntosh county, and they positively refuse to give up the Delage murderers. Further information from the governor's office is that Sheriff Blount has 250 men under his command, being every available white man in the country. Colonel Lawton has ordered the 4th regiment, with companies located at Brunswick, Waycross, Valdosta and other towns, to prepare for an immediate call to Darien. The companies at Brunswick and Waycross are now at their armories, ready to move. It is stated that a partying from 100 to 500, are en route to try of white men from Brunswick, numbering 100 to 500, are en route to try of white men from Brunswick, num-

Darien to join the sheriff's party.
Atlanta, Ga., August 26.—Governor Candler received advices from Colonel Lawton, in command of troops at Darien, stating that negroes congregated in the western portion of McIntosh county, fully armed and determined.
Colonel Lawton states that Sheriff Blount, with a posse of 100 men, went to the stronghold of the negroes with the intention of attacking them or forcing surrender this morning, but after reconsidering returned to Darien, believing it best to obtain more men. Lawton says he has called on the Liberty independent troop of cavalry, and expects it to arrive in a few hours. Another expedition will be made, and a battle is expected.

Governor Candler says the situation is most grave, and a crisis has probably been reached. He has every confidence, however, in Colonel Lawton, who is known as a brave, cool-headed officer.

Atlanta, Ga., August 26.—A special to the Journal from Savannah says: Colonel Lawton has just ordered out the entire 1st regiment of infantry to go to Darien this afternoon.

Atlanta, Ga., August 26.—The Journal special from Darien, Ga., says one of the Delages is reported to have been captured this afternoon without trouble.

Savannah, Ga., August 26.—The 1st regiment of Georgia volunteers will leave here at 4 p. m. for Darien, Ga.
This trip should occupy about one hour.
The 1st will take with them five days' ammunition and 10,000 rounds of ammunition.
